

Two large operating grants received in January. Cow Creek Umpqua Indian Foundation and KMSB Foundation

Both the KMSB Foundation and the Cow Creek Umpqua Indian Foundation have been sustaining and recurring grantors over the past several years. We honor our recurring grantors because they recognize the value and importance of our services and we honor them for the encouragement granted by their consistent support.

The Senior Center has had to raise its goals this year for donations and foundation support due to the rapidly increasing cost of supplies, especially food for our meals programs. Our food service expense alone will exceed budgeted funds by more than $47,000 this year due to the unexpected impact of inflation on food supplies. Other budget lines are also falling short as well in meeting the demands of rising costs and demand for services. The Center is hopeful that the general public, like our foundation supporters, also recognizes these challenges and is able to increase donations this year to help support our seniors.

All our gifts are valued the same no matter how large or how small. They all add up to making our community a better place and to our ability to honor our older adult residents.

December donations of $3130.00 were received from the following organizations and individuals:

Emma Wyatt
Marta Stephens
First Presbyterian Church

The Center continues to encourage you to be a recurring giver. These types of gifts are so important to the Center because they add stability to our funding. They also send a clear message to everyone that you have trust in the Center, its future and its importance to our senior neighbors.

You can become an on-going or recurrent giver by authorizing the Center to charge to your card periodically, such as monthly. You can also contribute by mail, personal visit or with a single telephone call to the Center. There is a giving form on page 3 of this publication.
